Dr Stephen Lynch, STEM Ambassador, MMU

Neurons, binary, arithmetic logic and memory.

Pupils will be introduced to binary oscillator computing - an invention by two MMU Mathematicians. Potentially, the invention could lead to the building of the world’s fastest supercomputer and the world’s first assay for neuronal degradation.

Supporting a Public Understanding of Science